ALL YEARS

FROM THE PREFECTS

- We will be holding Daffodil Day this FRIDAY, the 29th August at CGHS. The Prefects will be selling merchandise and flowers throughout the day. Come along to support the Cancer council.

- Cheltenham Sisters of Battle: Meeting today (Thurs) in II.02.

- Lost Property: Please come to Reception if you have lost a store gift card.

- Lost: An umbrella was taken from outside the Dance Room, this has a lot of sentimental value so please return to front office.

- WinterWonderland is TOMORROW (Thursday)! There will be a FREE movie screening at lunch in the Hall where we will be selling lollycups and there are prizes to be won. Hot chocolate will also be sold at recess and lunch in the Quad. Come dressed in pyjama mufti with a gold coin donation.

YEAR 7

- Debating: Year 7 debaters must attend a training session tomorrow (Thursday, 28th August) at lunchtime in A26 with Mrs Fowell.

- Taronga Zoo Excursion: Please pay for the Zoo excursion by Friday THIS WEEK. If you do not pay on time then you will not be allowed to come. If you have any questions or problems then see Mr Green in the Science faculty or speak to your Science teacher.

YEARS 7, 8, 9 & 10

- Public Speaking: Any students in Years 7-10 who would like to register for the United Nations “Voice of Youth” competition must see Mrs Fowell in the English staffroom before 5th September.

YEAR 9

- Year 9 Camp: The list for cabin groups is now up on the Sports noticeboard. You can choose rooms of eight people and there are four rooms per lodge. See Mrs Mac if any problems.
YEARS 10 – 12

- Vocal ensemble – Urgent Message for all students: We welcomed some new members to the group yesterday and the sound was fantastic. We started new music. If you did not attend yesterday's rehearsal you must write a note for Mrs Mewburn to explain your absence or your name will be on the list of students who made the commitment to join at the beginning of the year and have decided to quit and let your peers, Mrs Mewburn and the school down. This list is being given to Mrs Bridge next Monday and your name will be on it. Mrs Bridge is not impressed that students are not fulfilling their commitment and reminds you that the commitment is for the whole year, not just a couple of terms.

YEAR 12

- Year 12 Picnic: The picnic notes were due in yesterday. Unfortunately, less than half of Year 12 has returned completed notes. This is very disappointing. If you are still keen to have a nice day out with your cohort to Blaxland Riverside Park then please submit your completed form ASAP. There is no money involved! If the notes are not returned shortly then you can have a normal school day on 12th September.

- Year 12 Educational Access Scheme (EAS) Applicants: This is a reminder that there will be a counsellor available in the Interview Room this Friday morning (29th August) and the following Wednesday (3rd September) all day to check your application and answer your questions. Please make a note in your diary of the dates and ensure that you bring in your completed forms to be checked.
